

FIGURE 13.6. The first four panels are LANDSAT images for an agricultural area in four spectral bands, depicted by heatmap shading. The remaining two panels give the actual land usage (color coded) and the predicted land usage using a five-nearest-neighbor rule described in the text.